

of iron, under the name of "The McCullough Iron Company of Cecil County," and being now desirous of extending their operations, think it necessary to have corporate powers granted them by this General Assembly; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Jethro J. McCullough, Deleplaine McDaniel, William K. McClees, Wickham B. Spear, Enoch McCullough and William Scotten, their associates, successors and assigns, be and they hereby are created a body corporate, by the name and style of "The McCullough Iron Company," and by that name, shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable in law to hold and dispose of property, real, personal and mixed, fee simple, or leasehold, to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, and answer and defend, and be answered and defended, in any court of law or equity, and in any other place whatsoever, to receive and make deeds and contracts, to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to change, alter and renew at pleasure, to ordain and establish such by-laws, ordinances and regulations, as may appear necessary for regulating the concerns of said corporation, not being contrary to this act, or to the Constitution and Laws of this State, or of the United States, and to do all such acts and things as shall be necessary and proper, for the manufacture, galvanizing and sale of iron and articles made therefrom. Incorporated.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all property, real, personal and mixed, all stock; rights and credits, and all privileges of every description owned or exercised by, and all debts of every kind owing to the said association, known as "The McCullough Iron Company of Cecil County," shall, immediately upon the acceptance of this act of incorporation, and organization thereunder, become vested in the corporation hereby created, as fully to all intents and purposes as if the same were conveyed thereto by deed, and the respective interests of the several parties in and to said property, stock, rights and credits, privileges and debts, shall be the same as those held, owned and possessed in the said, "The McCullough Iron Company of Cecil County," and upon the accep- Rights, &c., vested in corporation.